

Helping families organize their village after a sudden loss

If you've never experienced the sudden loss of a loved one, you can't really imagine how many practical details there are to manage. Making burial arrangements, hosting family and friends, planning and coordinating funeral services and tracking gifts from meals to flowers to donations are just a few of the tasks you'll need to focus on in the days following your loss.

Carson's Village provides a wide range of free support services to help your family navigate this difficult time.

Grief Journey

In addition, Carson's Village offers grief support. Through Carson's Village, families can access peer-to-peer support, group grief support, and assistance choosing an individual therapist. Navigating your grief journey isn't easy and Carson's Village will be with you along the way.
