

SMU Psychology Clinic

a not-for-profit training clinic within the Department of Psychology that provides high-quality, affordable psychological services to the DFW community. Services are provided by doctoral students in the Clinical Psychology Program at SMU who are supervised by licensed psychologists

SERVICES OFFERED

► Individual Psychotherapy/Teletherapy

- Anxiety
- Grief/loss
- Divorce
- Interpersonal conflict
- Depression
- Coping Skills
- Trauma/PTSD

► Psychological Evaluations

- ADD/ADHD
- Learning differences (psychoeducational)
- Anxiety, depression, and other emotional issues
- Intellectual disabilities
- Autism Spectrum Disorder

► Help with parenting including

- Effective strategies for managing difficult child behaviors
- Help with oppositional/defiant behavior

HOURS

Mondays and Wednesdays: 9:00 am to 8:00 pm

Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays: 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

FEES

All therapy services are offered on a sliding scale, based on financial need. Assessments costs are fixed.

Request more information here:

LOCATION

6116 N. Central
Expressway
Ste. 1100
Dallas, TX 75206

For more information or to request services:
214-768-2398
smu.edu/SMUPsychologyClinic